About Us

At Elite Air, we're more than just an HVAC service provider — we're your neighbors, your problem-solvers, and your year-round comfort experts. Founded on the principles of honesty, reliability, and craftsmanship, our family-owned business has been serving West Michigan with pride for over 6 years. What started as a one-truck operation has grown into a trusted team of certified professionals dedicated to keeping homes and businesses cozy in the winter and cool in the summer.

We believe that great service starts with great people. Our technicians are not only highly trained — they're friendly, respectful, and committed to doing the job right the first time. Whether it's a simple tune-up or a complete system installation, we treat every project like it's in our own home.

At the heart of our company is a simple promise: we are honest, we stand by our work, and we never recommend anything you don't need. That's why our customers keep coming back — and why most of our business comes from word-of-mouth referrals.

When you call Elite Air, you're not just getting a service call — you're getting peace of mind.

We'd be honored to be your go-to HVAC partner.
